

Published to accompany a major exhibition at the British Museum, Troy sheds new light on a fascinating story that has resonated for more than 3,000 years of human experience

Troy

beyond the myth

Lesley Fitton, Andrew Shapland, Alexandra Villing
and Victoria Donnellan

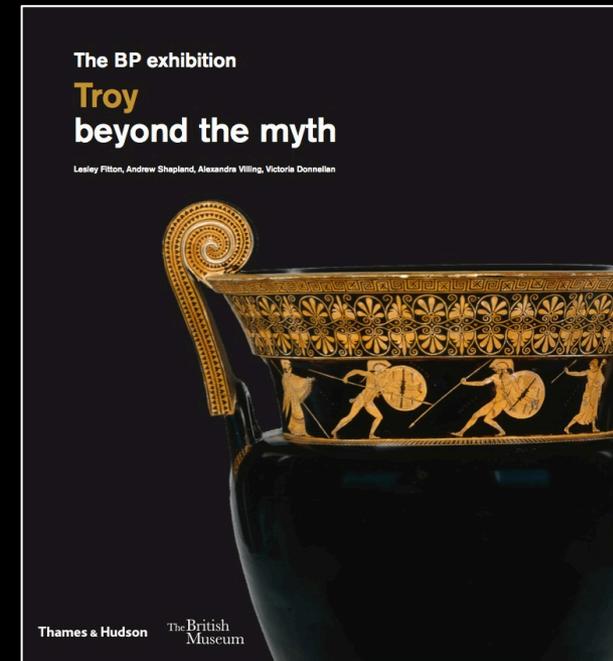

Hardback
c. 180 illustrations
28.0 x 25.0cm
272pp
ISBN 978 0 500 480557
£40.00
November 2019

Paperback
c. 180 illustrations
28.0 x 25.0cm
272pp
ISBN 978 0 500 480588
£25.00
November 2019

A4

Book

Provisional

Key Sales Points

- Accompanies the exhibition at the British Museum, London, from 21 November 2019 to March 2020
- Brings together the story of Troy from the three key perspectives: the myth, the archaeological evidence, and its enduring legacy around the world
- Includes a wide range of objects, from archaeological remains to artworks, literature and performances, from thousands of years ago up to the present day
- The story of Troy is one that has resonated for more than 3,000 years, and whether or not the Trojan War happened remains the subject of today

Published to accompany a major exhibition at the British Museum, Troy sheds new light on a fascinating story that has resonated for more than 3,000 years of human experience

Troy

beyond the myth

Lesley Fitton, Andrew Shapland, Alexandra Villing
and Victoria Donnellan

Hardback
c. 180 illustrations
28.0 x 25.0cm
272pp
ISBN 978 0 500 480557
£40.00
November 2019

Paperback
c. 180 illustrations
28.0 x 25.0cm
272pp
ISBN 978 0 500 480588
£25.00
November 2019

A4

Book

Provisional

