

Cocktails in Paris

Fashionable drinks for all seasons

By Audrey Laroux
Illustrated by Kelly Smith

Smith Street Books
9781923049420
£15
Hardback | 22.5 x 18.2 cm
128 pp | 55 recipes | 10,000 words
60 colour photographs
On sale 05 September 2024

Audrey Laroux is a French-American mixologist and author. Laroux's recipes offer a sip of Parisian elegance, making her a go-to for cocktail enthusiast around the world.

Kelly Smith (pictured above) is an Australian artist, working predominantly in fashion and beauty illustration, but also in collage and content creation. She has worked with several luxury brands and high-profile clients including Valentino, Armani, Maybelline New York, Jenny Packham, H&M, L'Oréal, Vogue, Clarins, Chantecaille, and NET-A-PORTER.

50 glamorous cocktails inspired by the City of Lights.

Cocktails in Paris shares 50 French-inspired concoctions perfect for sipping before dinner, as well as notes on glassware, garnishes, syrups and French bar staples like Champagne, Pastis and Lillet.

From an effervescent Suze spritz in the courtyard at sunset, to cosying up in front of the fireplace with a boozy boulevardier, nothing says savoir-vivre quite like apéro hour.

Complete with beautiful illustrations to accompany each cocktail, this book makes the perfect gift for any Francophile or cocktail enthusiast.

