As an ebook original, this title specifically has sold over a million copies for Mark Dawson.

Major overhaul on the brand look in HB with a fresh design, specs and colours.

The John Milton series has performed well for Welbeck so far and our aim of reaching a massive global print readership is being realised.

The Cleaner was a Top 15 bestseller in hardback and has now sold 50K copies in paperback (and continuing).

Ebook sales of John Milton books have rocketed in the past year and we are confident we will match those with consistently strong print sales.

John Milton is a ghost. He was Number One. The most dangerous assassin in Group Fifteen, the black-ops organisation that solves problems when diplomacy has failed.

Now Milton is Her Majesty's most wanted fugitive – an anonymous loner with a deadly set of skills. So when he is arrested following a brawl in a Texas bar, the last person he expected to bail him out was a glamorous operative from the Russian Secret Service.

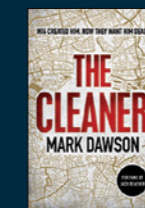

Milton is blackmailed into finding his predecessor as Number One. But she's a ghost, too, and just as dangerous as him. He finds himself in deep trouble, playing the Russians against the British in a desperate attempt to save the life of his oldest friend. Some ghosts are better left alone. But these two have been disturbed and now there's going to be hell to pay.

Mark Dawson is the bestselling author of the John Milton, Beatrix Rose and Isabella Rose series, and has sold over 6 million books.

A lead summer thriller, perfect for fans of TM Logan's The Holiday (TCM: 184k) and Lucy Clarke's The Castaways (TCM: 72k).

A horribly realistic it-could-happen-to-anyone thriller about ordinary people caught in the middle of a nightmare.

Welbeck's biggest fiction title for 2023, with a marketing and PR campaign to support it.

Welbeck's biggest marketing push of 2023 with an exclusive proof run, innovative ambassador outreach, large-scale brand partnerships and impactful digital advertising.

High-profile and extensive PR campaign combining a strategic mix of magazine features and reviews, national print and broadcast interviews.

A page-turning thriller, following two women who meet on their honeymoons, never realising that the trip of a lifetime will end in murder.

Married life wasn't meant to start like this...

Whilst on honeymoon in Bali, you hit it off with another newlywed couple and celebrate your last night at a fancy cliff-side restaurant.

No one predicted the evening would end with a dead body. But it was an accident, right? A tragic accident.

The honeymoon may be over but it soon becomes clear that there's another side to this story...

Many marriages can survive anything – but when it starts on a lie, is it really 'til death do us part?

Kate Gray lives in Yorkshire, England. She juggles her love of writing around her two young children. The Honeymoon is her first psychological thriller – she has also written six commercial women's fiction novels as Katy Colins.

THE PRINCESS

Written by Wendy Holden

UK RRP £14.99 Hardback
 978-1-78739-756-9 400 pages
 17 August 2023 110,000 words
 234 x 153 mm Fiction / Historical Fiction

Also available in Export Trade Paperback:
 978-1-78739-757-6 £12.99

The Princess is the third instalment of Wendy Holden's bestselling historical fiction series about outsiders in the house of Windsor.

Diana, Princess of Wales, became trapped in a loveless relationship when she married Prince Charles in 1981 which eventually led to divorce and her untimely death in a car crash in 1997.

The Princess sympathetically portrays a young, quirky, friendly woman caught up in sweep of history against her will.

Welbeck ambitions are for another Sunday Times bestseller – this is a story that anyone can relate to, told with skill and warmth and panache.

A deeply moving new novel about the young Princess Diana.

Diana believes in love. Growing up amid the fallout of her parents' bitter divorce, she takes refuge in romantic novels. She dreams of being rescued by a handsome prince.

Prince Charles loves his freedom. He's in no rush to wed, but his family have other ideas. Charles must marry for the future of the Crown.

The right girl needs to be found, and fast. She must be young, aristocratic and free of past liaisons.

The teenage Diana Spencer is just about the only candidate. Her desperation to be loved dovetails with royal desperation for a bride.

But the route to the altar is full of hidden obstacles and people with their own agendas.

When she steps from the golden carriage on her wedding day, has Diana's romantic dream come true?

Or is it already over?

Number One bestseller Wendy Holden has sold millions of books across the world in the course of a writing career lasting over 20 years. The first novel in her 'difficult Windsor women' series, The Governess, was a Sunday Times bestseller and fictionalised the long-buried story of Marion 'Crawfie' Crawford, controversial childhood governess to Queen Elizabeth II. The Duchess was the second book in the series in 2021, fictionalising the inside life of Wallis Simpson, wife to King Edward VIII. The third book in the trilogy, The Princess, about the lesser-known early years of Diana, Princess of Wales, publishes in hardback in August 2023.

Fiction / Thriller & Suspense

• A sensational new thriller based on the fabulous lost treasures of the Romanovs.

• A commercial proposition that will appeal to a broad audience, from lovers of conspiracy theories thrillers such as Dan Brown.

• Gavin Collinson has multiple TV and film writing credits and brings a propulsive, filmic quality to the action.

The fabulous lost treasures of the Romanovs have been missing for over a century. Now Marc Novak has one week to track down and steal this Holy Grail of royal riches, or his closest friends will be killed.

Novak has just let one of the vilest criminals he's ever encountered slip through his fingers and, devastated, he's in no mood for mystery. So when he's approached by a woman claiming to be one of the last of the Romanovs, for once, he's reluctant to help.

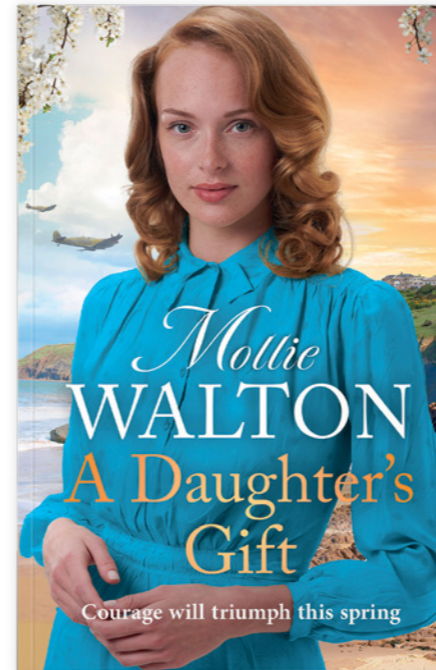

His refusal has horrific and fatal consequences, but it's only the beginning. An Imperial syndicate demands that the detective traces and retrieves the world-famous artefacts, making it clear that his refusal or failure will result in the death of his loved ones.

As the clock ticks down, Novak realises he isn't the only one who's getting closer to the hoard... He's pitted against a sinister serial killer known as the Friend who'll stop at nothing to secure the prize.

Action, mystery, suspense and romance combine in a thriller that sees Novak ricochet between the backstreets of Soho, London's wealthiest and glitziest social strata, and even the palaces of Europe, as he desperately tries to stay one step ahead of the Friend in his quest for the cache.

Gavin Collinson is a writer, producer and journalist, with credits on Doctor Who, Coronation Street and Emmerdale. His debut book, An Accident in Paris, was published in 2022, and was a high-concept conspiracy thriller based on the real events surrounding the death of Princess Diana. His second thriller, The Romanov Code, will be published in 2023.

• This heartwarming, dramatic World War II saga is perfect for fans of Daisy Styles, Kate Thompson and Rosie Clarke.

• The first book in the series, A Mother's War, was shortlisted for the Romantic Novelist Association's 'The Romantic Saga Award 2023'.

North Yorkshire, September 1940.

It's a year since war was first announced and the dangers are becoming all too real for Rosina Calvert-Lazenby and her courageous daughters. With Raven Hall requisitioned by the army, and her young lover, Sergeant Harry Woodvine, posted abroad, Rosina must turn to older Colonel Allan Vaughan, to help protect her family home from the rowdy troops.

Meanwhile, Rosina's fearless second daughter, twenty-year-old Evelyn Calvert-Lazenby, has joined London's Auxiliary Fire Service. With the guidance of the Bailey brothers, two kind professional firemen, Evvy does her best to support the Blitz effort. But with the bombings worsening, there can be no guarantees of anyone's safety...

With the stakes getting higher every day, is it possible for Rosina and Evvy to protect all those they love?

Mollie Walton is the pen-name for historical novelist Rebecca Mascull. The inspiration for the Raven Hall trilogy came when she visited the stunning Raven Hall hotel with her daughter and fell in love with the beautiful cliff-top view. Under Mollie Walton, Mascull is also the author of the historical fiction trilogy, the Ironbridge Saga. She lives in Grimsby, UK.

A fatal crash on a rain-slick road and a brutal murder in an English village set off a deadly chain of events, leading from stormy skies over the Mediterranean Sea to an explosive confrontation on a remote airstrip in North Africa...

Only a handful of people know the reason why Kate Hood left the military in disgrace; but, to keep her secrets, she must take a last-minute assignment to fly a covert cargo out of the country, no questions asked.

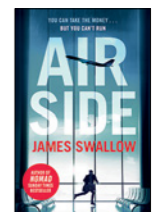

The cargo is a prisoner who may be the key to a violent terrorist conspiracy – but he swears he is an innocent man. And on the ground, a team of ruthless killers are trying to force the pilot to hijack her own aircraft.

But do they plan to liberate the captive – or execute him?

Kate and her mysterious passenger must navigate the conflicting agendas of enemies and allies alike, on a flight into danger that neither of them may survive...

James Swallow is a New York Times, Sunday Times and Amazon bestselling author. He is also a BAFTA nominee, a former journalist and the award-winning writer of over fifty books, along with numerous scripts for video games, radio and television. He lives in Kent, UK.

- Feral is shortlisted for the Prix des Libraires and longlisted for the Prix Joseph Kessel, the Prix Ouest-France Étonnants Voyageurs and the Prix Orange.
- Both a thriller and a love story, Feral is an eco-feminist revenge tale full of dramatic tension that will appeal to readers of The Eight Mountains by Paolo Cognetti and fans of Delia Owens's Where the Crawdads Sing.

Set in the Canadian forest, Feral is a feminist eco-thriller, a passionate love story and an ode to nature's ferocious beauty.

Raphaëlle, a forty-year-old forest warden, has been estranged from her family for many years. She lives with her beloved dog, Coyote in a caravan deep in the Canadian woods. Fiercely independent and cut off from civilisation, she is always armed, protecting herself from bears, coyotes and lynxes who she in turn defends from sadistic, overzealous poachers.

Raphaëlle discovers animal footprints outside her cabin, her dog vanishes and is eventually found severely injured. And then it is not long before Raphaëlle herself becomes the prey of the forest's ultimate predator, which is not animal, but man.

Gabrielle Filteau-Chiba is a writer and environmental activist from Québec. In 2013, she left her job, home and family in Montreal, sold all her worldly belongings and moved into a wooden cabin in the remote Kamouraska region.

David Homel is a literary translator and an author. He has twice won the Governor General's Literary Award for Translation.

- Based on the terrifying true story of one of Mexico's most famous female serial killers; 'The Ogress of Colonia Roma'.

When the writer Ignacio Suárez is sent photos of two murdered women, mirroring a passage of his detective novel, he rushes to uncover who is responsible.

What no one suspects is that the key to solving these crimes lies in the forgotten story of Felicitas Sánchez, the midwife turned child-killer who became known in the 1940s as 'The Ogress of Colonia Roma'.

Diary entries and newspaper articles come together in this gripping tale to reveal how Felicitas, who grew up in a small community in Mexico, became the infamous child trafficker and murderer in the country's capital, and how her crimes are linked to this new wave of murders.

Verónica E. Llaca has worked as a journalist as well as a playwright. She is the winner of the Premio Nacional de Novela Negra.

Mark Fried is a translator of Latin American literature, known for his translations of the Uruguayan writer Eduardo Galeano and the Mexican writer Élmer Mendoza.

Interweaving two timelines, Verónica E. Llaca evokes a tale of cursed bloodlines, forcing us to question the origin and inheritance of evil and how far we can truly escape our past.

- First female writer in Norway's male-dominated thriller genre.
- Comparison titles include The Bourne Trilogy by Robert Ludlum and The Hunt For Red October by Tom Clancy.

Fighter pilot Ylva Nordahl has returned to her hometown, Bodø, in Norway's frozen north where tension is escalating across the border with Russia as a result of NATO's 'Arctic Blizzard' exercise. 60,000 troops have been mobilised, many of them American. One single false move could trigger a major political crisis, or even war.

John Evans, an American pilot and Ylva, his younger Norwegian co-pilot, are forced to eject over Russian territory and then to escape from the Spetsnaz special forces determined to find them.

As the hunt closes in, Ylva uses what she learned from years spent with the Sami people to survive the excruciating cold and brutal terrain and her family history reveals dark secrets of its own in this geopolitical game of chess.

The truth about the 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine, by 'Ukraine's greatest living novelist'

Andrey Kurkov is Ukraine's most famous and successful living writer. He has been translated into 30 other languages.

Kurkov is the bestselling author of Death and the Penguin, which has sold over 70,000 copies in the UK, and Grey Bees, which explores Ukraine's conflict with Russia.

Diary of an Invasion was selected by The Times as one of 2022's 12 best biographies and memoirs.

'At first we did not understand what war was. You can't understand it until you see it and hear it.'

As Russian forces build up beyond the Ukrainian borders and the prospect of war becomes a devastating reality, Andrey Kurkov chronicles the shocking impact of Russia's invasion of Ukraine. Part political and historical commentary, part personal journal, Kurkov explores the fraught interrelation of Russian and Ukrainian history, the complicated coexistence of their languages, and in describing how a peaceful society defies occupation, the author builds an image of a culture which, contrary to Putin's claims, is unique and democratic, liberal and diverse, one that will 'resist to the end'.

Redirecting his satirical flair to paint a defiant portrait of his compatriots, Kurkov tells of a people united against erasure. Bread is baked and shared in the ruins. An amputee is carried aboard an evacuating train, grandmothers escape occupied towns with their noisome roosters. And despite the networks of toloka, of community work for common good, being stretched to breaking point, and the embittering reticence of some European nations to make good their promises of aid and armaments, hope channels its perennial resistance: children are born deep within besieged cities and farmers go on working the fields made lethal by unexploded shells. Kurkov braids his personal story with those of other displaced Ukrainians and the communities that have gone to extraordinary lengths to care for them. Showing an irrepressible spirit, they 'wait for the moment when it will be safe to return, just as I am waiting'.

Born near Leningrad in 1961, Andrey Kurkov was a journalist, prison warden, cameraman and screenplay-writer before he became well known as a novelist. He was a pioneer of self-publishing, selling more than 75,000 copies of his books in a single year. His novel Death and the Penguin, his first in English translation, became an international bestseller, translated into more than thirty languages. He is also known as a commentator and journalist on Ukraine for the international media. His work of reportage, Ukraine Diaries: Dispatches from Kiev, was published in 2014.

'No-one with the slightest interest in this war, or the nation on which it is being waged, should fail to read Andrey Kurkov'

Biography / True Crime

Told for the first time ever, this is a real-life confession of an anonymous, undercover cop, recounting the full, uncensored reality of what is like to live life on both sides of the law.

The gritty and heart-pounding confession of one man who lived his life on both sides of the law.

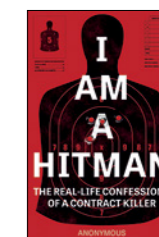

How far can you go before you're no longer the good guy?

Having infiltrated infamous crime cartels for the last twenty years, lies and deceit are second nature to me. Forced to stay undercover, lines were blurred and the differences between reality and my fake identity were lost.

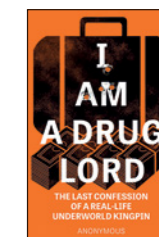

But now, I've decided to walk away from it all and tell the tale of how I got trapped undercover, pretending to be the kind of criminal I swore to hunt. From the big bluffs to the close calls, and from fighting with petty criminals to dealing with dangerous gangsters, I am going to reveal the truth about the violent world I was caught in.

This is the story of my life as an undercover cop.

Interest in the SAS has never been higher, and this will appeal to fans of Ant Middleton, Jason Fox, Ollie Ollerton and Damien Lewis.

'A no holdout account of the Falklands War from a man who was in the fight.' – Andy McNab

Tony Hoare always knew he wanted to be in the SAS and so, after working his way through the ranks, he passed arduous SAS selection in 1978.

Less than four years later, Tony and his team were sent to the Falklands, just off the coast of Argentina, where tensions were rising and war was on the horizon. Nothing could have prepared him for what happened over the course of the next 12 weeks, as the Falkland Islands became a battleground between the British and Argentinians. As helicopters crashed and ships sank, Tony battled across treacherous terrain to reclaim the islands from a fearsome enemy. This is a thrilling account of the Falklands from a trooper who saw it all.

Tony Hoare passed SAS selection in 1978 and with them, went on multiple tours and trained numerous recruits, including Andy McNab. Since leaving the Army in 1996, he has undertaken security and consultation on various highly dangerous projects, including a stint as a UN Security Officer in South Sudan.

Andy McNab made his name with the story of his own incredible SAS mission, Bravo Two Zero (est. 2m lifetime sales) and has continued to sell millions of books worldwide, including non-fiction title Seven Troop (137k TCM).

A narrative history series inspired by recent SAS missions, this will appeal to fans of Ben Macintyre (895k TCM), and Damien Lewis (1m TCM), as well as Ant Middleton (1.1m TCM) and Jason Fox (327k TCM).

The first book in our Special Ops Missions series, The Hunt, has done well in HB and TPB, having collectively sold over 17k copies (TCM) and 24k copies out to retailers. A mass market paperback, featuring an exclusive sample chapter of The Rescue, is expected to follow in May 2023.

With very little information available on the mission, The Rescue is the first to recount the full story and everything it took for the Special Forces to solve an hostage crisis, including covert operations, stakeouts and ransom negotiations.

It is 2012 and, in Northern Afghanistan, an international crisis has emerged.

A group of NGO workers, including a British woman, have gone missing; kidnapped by local insurgents. After attempts to negotiate a deal with the terrorists fail, and with the lives of the hostages hanging in the balance and the Taliban on their way into the area, there is only one option.

SAS and Navy SEALs are sent in to retrieve them.

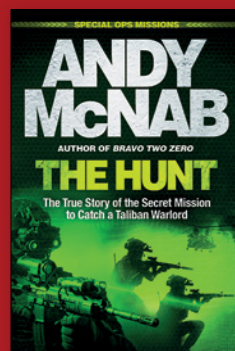

The Rescue is the thrilling story of the mission to save a group of hostages from almost certain death. Using classified sources and his personal insight into the inner-workings of the special forces, Andy McNab gives a page-turning account of this incredible real-life mission.

From ransom negotiations to aerial stakeouts and undercover missions, The Rescue is the explosive true story of the special forces mission to save hostages in the face of impossible odds.

Andy McNab joined the infantry as a boy soldier. In 1984, he was 'badged' as a member of 22 SAS Regiment and was involved in both covert and overt special operations worldwide. Awarded both the Distinguished Conduct Medal (DCM) and Military Medal (MM) during his military career, McNab was the British Army's most highly decorated serving soldier when he finally left the SAS in February 1993. He wrote about his experiences in three books: the phenomenal bestseller Bravo Two Zero, Immediate Action and Seven Troop. He is also the author of the bestselling Nick Stone thrillers. Besides his writing work, he lectures to security and intelligence agencies in both the USA and UK. He is a patron of the Help for Heroes campaign.

WAR OF THE WINDSORS

THE INSIDE STORY OF CHARLES, ANDREW AND THE RIVALRY THAT HAS DEFINED THE ROYAL FAMILY

Written by Nigel Cawthorne

UK RRP £20.00 Hardback
 978-1-80279-718-3 320 pages
 31 August 2023 80,000 words
 234 x 153 mm Royal Biography

War of the Windsors offers a fascinating new look at the Royal family through the rivalry between King Charles and Prince Andrew, capturing the relationship like never before.

While there are numerous pieces of gossip circulating, War of the Windsors is the first to provide a conclusive and definitive look into the feuding heirs and everything that contributed to their rivalry.

On bookshelves, royal biographies have done incredibly well recently, particularly in hardback, with numerous recent successes including Revenge (95k TCM – 78k HB), The Palace Papers (43k TCM – 40k HB), Battle of Brothers (27k TCM – 23k HB) and Finding Freedom (68k TCM – 60k HB).

Telling the story of their lives from children to modern day, this fascinating and revelatory new book will look at the fraught relationship (and fiery rivalry) between King Charles and Prince Andrew.

Raised for vastly different futures, one burdened with the responsibility of becoming the future king and the other destined to live in his shadow, Charles and Andrew have spent their lives on different sides of the same coin.

War of the Windsors tells, for the first time, the complete story of Charles and Andrew from their diverging childhoods to their current struggles. It looks at the distinct but overlapping stories of the two heirs, from being separated in their early years and the Queen's supposed overindulgence of Andrew to the competition for Lady Diana and finally, Charles' ascension to throne while his brother is stripped of Royal duties. And it explores whether, with the scandals around Andrew still fresh in public memory, Charles will ever let his brother back into the family.

With extensive research and expert sourcing, War of the Windsors is the incredible inside story of a family in turmoil. Recounting the highs and lows of a brotherhood that turned into a rivalry, royal author and journalist Nigel Cawthorne looks at the makings of a decades-long feud and questions whether, ultimately, the brothers will one day band together again.

Having published more than 150 books throughout his career, including numerous titles on the Royal family, Nigel Cawthorne is a sought-after freelance writer and editor for publications, including The Guardian, the Daily Mail, the Daily Mirror and the New York Tribune. He has also appeared on Good Morning Britain, BBC Breakfast and several other TV and radio programmes in the US and Australia, and been asked to comment on Royal news pieces at various key moments in the last few years.

Published in collaboration with the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew which receives nearly 2 million visitors from across the world every year.

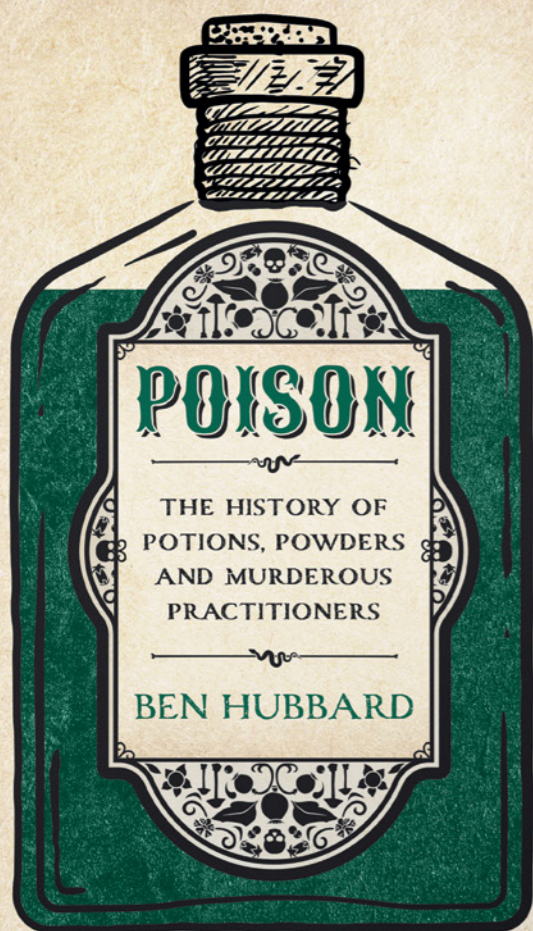

Rare Plants explores what makes the world's most uncommon plants so exceptional, and by what means they have become so scarce.

Forty rare and endangered species are explored through over 200 images sourced from the incomparable archives at Kew accompanied by illuminating and authoritative text by Ed Ikin, director of Kew's wild botanic garden at Wakehurst.

Capturing the rarity and beauty of the natural world, Rare Plants is a gorgeous gift for any plant lover.

Ed Ikin is Deputy Director of Wakehurst, Kew's wild botanic garden, and was previously General Manager of Modern Hall Park and Rainham Hall for the National Trust. He is the author of Thoughtful Gardening and Garden Friends.

FOREWORD BY SOPHIE HANNAH

POISON

THE HISTORY OF POTIONS, POWDERS
AND MURDEROUS PRACTITIONERS

Written by Ben Hubbard
Foreword by Sophie Hannah

UK RRP £9.99	Paperback
978-1-80279-694-0	208 pages
26 October 2023	40,000 words
198 x 129 mm	Social & Cultural History

Featuring a foreword by Sophie Hannah, the multi-million-copy internationally bestselling author. Hannah writes her own hugely successful crime/thriller novels, alongside working with the Agatha Christie estate on the Poirot Mysteries.

The hardback (2019) is consistently one of our top sellers on Amazon.com, and has sold over 6k copies in the US overall. In the UK, we have shipped 3.5k.

The paperback, featuring beautiful and creepy mono illustrations, will replicate the success of the subject matter of the previous format, while being at a lower price point and more suitable format for the audience.

Chronologically recounting the story of history's silent assassin, Poison documents the gripping tales of the users and victims of these mysterious substances, from Cleopatra, the Borgias and Qin Shi Huang to contemporary secret service agents and terrorists. Profiles of the most commonly used toxins of each era reveal how the power-hungry, the dangerous and the desperate have harnessed these natural killers to achieve their ends.

Poisoning is a dark art as old as human history itself. The Roman emperors used poison liberally to dispose of rivals, guests at Renaissance dinner parties were quietly assassinated with adulterated wine, and professional poisoners equipped murderous wives with toxic tonics for their husbands. In twentieth-century warfare, poisonous substances were used in new and awful ways to terrorize and obliterate both civilians and enemy forces. Today, in the search for the perfect covert weapon, shadowy figures deploy pernicious poisons which are almost impossible to trace. They are only the latest in a long line of experimenters: for the same poisons used to kill or injure others have been used throughout history as intoxicants, aphrodisiacs and even elixirs of life. As every amateur toxicologist knows, the difference between a poison and medicine is often simply the dose.

Ben Hubbard is an accomplished author who has written many children's titles on a wide variety of subject matter, from Vikings and gladiators to pop music and planes.

Sophie Hannah is an internationally bestselling writer of psychological crime fiction, published in 49 languages. Since 2014, with the blessing of Agatha Christie's family and estate, Hannah has published three new Poirot novels, all Sunday Times bestsellers. In 2013, her novel The Carrier won the Crime Thriller of the Year Award at the Specsavers National Book Awards.

WHO I AM

MY STORY

Written by Melanie Chisholm

UK RRP £9.99	Paperback
978-1-80279-338-3	448 pages
6 July 2023	110,000 words
198 x 129 mm	Autobiography / Music

Opening up for the first time ever, this is Melanie's full story of her time with the Spice Girls and her solo career, as well as her struggles with mental health, body image, fame, family and being one of the world's biggest popstars.

Melanie will be doing additional publicity for the paperback, including print and broadcast, and will be promoting it on her own channels.

With a new jacket and a fresh look, this will be the beach read of the Summer!

25 years ago, the Spice Girls, a girlband that began after answering an advert in the paper, released our first single. 'Wannabe' became a hit and from that moment, my life changed for ever.

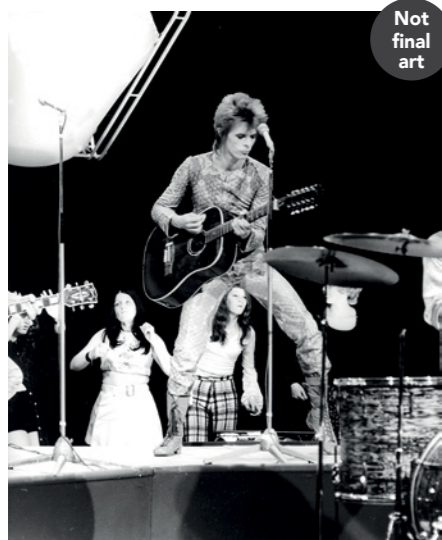

I was suddenly part of one of the biggest music groups in history, releasing hit after hit, performing to our amazing fans and spreading the message of Girl Power to the world. It was everything I'd dreamed of growing up, and I've had some amazing times... The BRITs! The movie! Travelling the world playing iconic venues such as Madison Square Garden, the O2, Wembley Stadium and at the London 2012 Olympics!!!

When you're a woman, though, that power can be easily taken away by those around you, whether by pressure, exhaustion, shaming, bullying or a constant feeling like you aren't enough. I have been known as Sporty Spice, Mel C., Melanie C or just plain old Melanie Chisholm, but what you will read within the pages of this book is who I truly am, and how I found peace with that after all these years.

I have really enjoyed reminiscing and getting everything down on the page, and, though revisiting some of my darkest times was hard, I hope this book can be inspiring and empowering, as well as entertaining and give you a bit of a laugh.

Melanie Chisholm was born in Whiston, Lancashire, and grew up in Widnes, Cheshire. She rose to fame as a member of the Spice Girls, who would become the bestselling girl group of all time. In 1999, she released her first solo album Northern Star, which sold four million copies worldwide, and since then has released seven more albums, including the UK Top 10 album Melanie C in 2020.

• Aimed at new and intermediate seekers looking for practical advice, backed up by science and from an expert in the field. Garret Yount, PhD, has been researching the science of 'energy vibes' for over 20 years.

Every object in the universe vibrates. These vibrating energy waves are the foundation of our reality, they have the power to change the way we feel and the way we behave. Referring to 'vibes' has become part of our everyday language, but what exactly are they, why do we experience them and how can we use them effectively?

We've all had 'that' feeling: our mood suddenly changes or we sense an 'atmosphere' when we enter a room. A distinct quality connects these experiences – a shift in how we sense a person or a place, often referred to as a 'vibe'.

Looking at where vibes come from and how they affect us Garret reviews the research and explains the science behind our reactions. Practical tools and techniques will help you attune to your own vibes and learn how to influence them in the wisest possible way.

Garret Yount, PhD, is a molecular biologist at IONS, where his research focuses on mapping the mind-gene interface. He obtained his BS from the Department of Molecular & Cell Biology at the Pennsylvania State University, and his PhD from the Department of Neurobiology & Behavior at the State University of New York at Stony Brook.

WHY OUR MINDS WANDER

UNDERSTAND THE SCIENCE AND LEARN HOW TO FOCUS YOUR THOUGHTS

• Arnaud Delorme, PhD, explores the science and theory behind why we daydream, examining its potential purpose.

• Published in association with the Institute of Noetic Sciences (IONS). IONS uses the rigor of science to explore our inner space, understanding that both objective knowledge and subjective knowing are both valid and necessary.

Mind wandering is the scientific term for daydreaming, something we all do. Every one of us has experienced that moment when we suddenly realise that instead of paying attention, our mind has drifted elsewhere. But how does it choose where to go, why does it focus on one thing over another, how important is it and is it good or bad?

Arnaud walks you through the science and the theory and offers easy techniques to help you tame your 'monkey mind' to improve mood, focus concentration and foster greater creativity.

Arnaud Delorme, PhD, has been studying human consciousness for the last 20 years. He is a CNRS principal investigator in Toulouse, France, a member of faculty at the University of California and a research scientist at the Institute of Noetic Sciences. He has also taught in India on the neural correlates of conscious experience in a Master's degree programme.

The current cost-of-living crisis is unlikely to abate any time soon. Heidi's accessible style speaks to people from all walks of life, sensible, easy-to-do advice that really works, the hustles featured are ethical and as sustainable as possible.

Other budgeting books in the market focus on specific areas i.e. cooking and finances – Heidi's book is the first to cover all areas of our households, including days out, big celebrations, holidays, wasting less, shopping much frugally.

Will appeal to readers of The Batch Lady, Everything is Washable and Other Lessons, Money Mum Official.

This is a no-nonsense guide on how to change your habits to weather the storm, written by TikTok's queen of budgeting, Heidi Ondrak, aka The Duchess of Thrift.

Full of practical hacks to adapt to life's financial ups and downs and guaranteed to help you save every month Heidi will show you how to nurture resilience alongside some of those cheeky life hacks that no one teaches in schools. Think of it as a modern-day take on Mrs Beeton's Book of Household Management, with extra sass.

Hacks range from the well-versed and practical to the downright outrageous – pick and choose, do what suits you. Heidi will help you build a toolkit to get you through the crisis and feel prepared and in control for more energy increases, interest rate rises and eye-watering inflation, while doing it with a fighting spirit and sunny demeanor. You'll learn how to change your mindset, get the family on board, carry out budget health checks, shop smarter, look a million dollars for pennies, have great days out, enjoy Christmas and be able to get around... All on a shoestring!

Heidi Ondrak is a secondhand-style magician and thrifter extraordinaire known as the @duchessofthrift. A working mother of two, she is infamous for her cheeky money saving hacks, savvy shopping tips and considered advice that regularly gets picked up by the media.

SAUNA

THE POWER OF DEEP HEAT

Written by Emma O'Kelly

Photographs by Maija Astikainen

UK RRP £22.99	Hardback
978-1-80129-242-9	256 pages
14 September 2023	40,000 words
246 x 189 mm	Lifestyle / Design

The first trade book on the market to celebrate the rich history and health benefits of the sauna.

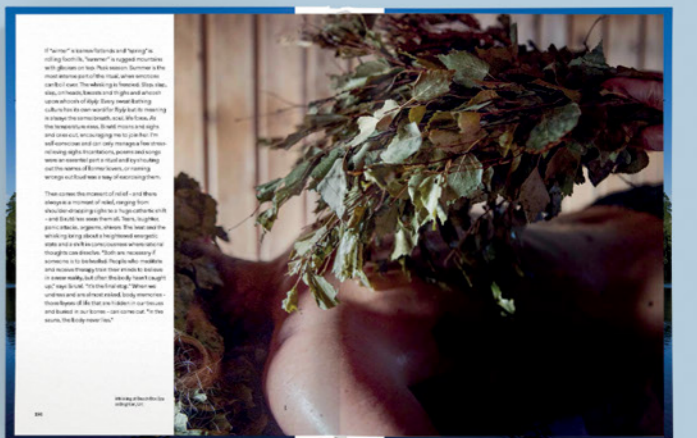

Trips to the sauna often go hand in hand with a cold-water swim, Sauna will appeal to readers of Wim Hoff who are intrigued by this invigorating hot-cold-hot ritual.

In many countries, the sauna is sacred. Nothing beats the camaraderie of congregating in the steam, sharing beers and tears, and plunging in an ice bath when it gets too hot to handle. Sauna will highlight the benefits the sauna brings to body and mind, its connection to nature, its history and mythology and its compatibility with another great invigorator – cold water swimming.

In recent years, Scandinavian countries have jostled for top spot in the United Nation's World Happiness Report, the sauna plays a key role in the region's mental and physical wellbeing. How and why? And who invented the sauna? Sauna explores the health benefits of the sauna and its origins: was it Finland, Estonia, Japan or Russia who came up with the first 'hot caves'? It looks at the ancient rituals and remedies that the sauna inspired: babies were born in its gentle mist, bodies prepared for burial, evil spirits banished.

Emma O'Kelly has been an editor and writer at Wallpaper magazine for 24 years. She has travelled extensively in Finland, Sweden, Denmark and Norway, scoping out Nordic design, architecture and art, and has met many of each country's leading talents.

Maija Astikainen's work has been published both in Finnish and international media such as the Telegraph, the Financial Times, NBC's Today.com and Les Echos Weekend, to mention a few. She works regularly for Finland's biggest travel magazine Mondo and has photographed several travel guides.

A MODERN GUIDE TO THE BEST VEGETARIAN RECIPES

Written by Alice Hart

UK RRP £27.00 H硬back
978-1-80453-076-4 240 pages
28 September 2023 48,000 words
246 x 189 mm Food & Drink / Recipes

- The follow-up to 2022's The Magnificent Book of Vegetables, Alice Hart's second book is all about go-to vegetarian meals.
- A sociable collection of recipes suitable for every occasion, from weeknight staples to celebration dishes.
- Makes vegetables the star of every dish in fuss-free, repeatable and popular classic that have gutsy, satisfying flavours.
- Featuring a confident and indulgent dessert chapter to round the book off properly.

There are lots of vegetarian books out there, but Repertoire is sure to become a dog-eared, stain-covered, go-to recipe book for the home cook. Filled with best-loved classics (including Vegetarian Lasagne, Ratatouille and Tiramisu), impressive 'signature dishes' worthy of a dinner party or celebration but minus the stress (such as, Aubergine Bao Buns, Radicchio Risotto with Black Olive Crumbs and Peach Frangipane Tart) and future weekday favourites. This book is perfect for anyone who loves vegetarian dishes with gutsy flavours but is pressed for time.

Alice will begin the book by imparting a little of her nutritionist knowledge, explaining to the home cook what a balanced vegetarian meal looks like, concentrating on seasonality and accessible protein sources. However, this will not be a worthy cookbook, and the main focus will be on humble, affordable and easy-to-find ingredients, reflecting the current economic situation.

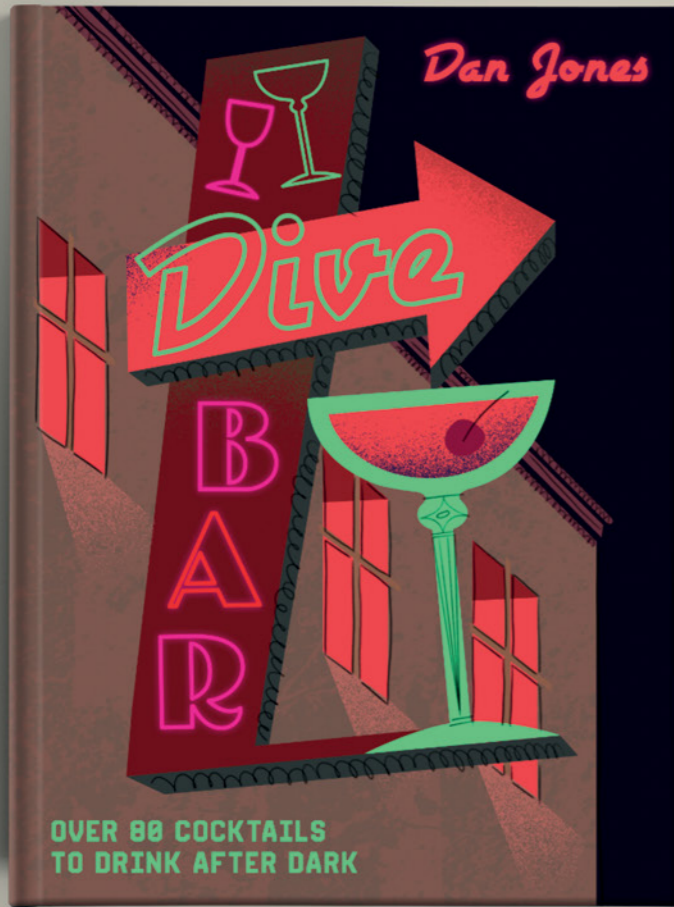

Alice Hart is an established and experienced UK-based food writer, food stylist, chef, cookbook author and qualified nutritionist (MSc.) Her vibrant, seasonal vegetarian recipes celebrate wholefoods, spices and herbs by the handful, as well as vegetables themselves. Alice has written many books to date, but this is her third vegetarian cookbook.

BIG WITCH ENERGY

POWER SPELLS FOR MODERN WITCHES

Written by Semra Haksever

UK RRP £15.00 Hback
 978-1-80453-049-8 160 pages
 28 September 2023 22,000 words
 210 x 160 mm Self-help & Development

- This is a book of magic that is topical and empowering.
- Features spells, rituals, lotions and potions that promote self-love, summon courage, and help you to find your voice.
- The fifth book by the UK's most stylish witch, Semra Haksever.
- A must for any modern witch wanting to break the patriarchy and embrace their true potential.

There is so much power that the word 'witch' conjures up. Often people are afraid of it due to the negative stories of witches that have been told through time, but in Big Witch Energy, Semra Haksever encourages you to take up space, reclaim your power and know your worth.

Defenceless people have always used magic to empower themselves, and many today are reclaiming the power of being a witch. While the patriarchy perpetuated negative stories about witches throughout history, it also conditions us today to not accept ourselves, makes us conscious of our 'imperfections' – such as our weight, how we age and what we wear. Practising radical self-love through magic is a powerful way to take control of this narrative. Featuring chapters on how to Bless, Banish, Empower, Protect and Manifest, within these pages lies the toolbox to a successful, content and powerful life. There are spells for impostor syndrome; if you've lost your job or been dumped; teas to bless your insides; yoni steams; body magic lotion; energy shift potions; significant birthday spells and so much more.

Practising radical self-love and complete acceptance of yourself brings a wisdom that will connect you to your true self. These spells and rituals will assist you on your own personal journey, and allow you to break away from old outdated systems on all levels of your everyday life.

Semra Haksever is a fashion stylist for over a decade before becoming a bohemian entrepreneur and starting Mama Moon, a bespoke collection of magical scented candles and potions. She has practiced reiki, crystal therapy and moon rituals for over 20 years, and has always held the desire to create ritualistic tools that are accessible to all.

Also available:

She is the bestselling author of Everyday Magic (2018), as well as Love Spells (2019), Mama Moon's Book of Magic (2020) and Instant Magic Oracle (2021).

STORY OF NOW

WHY WE NEED TO TALK ABOUT THE BRITISH EMPIRE

Written by Shelina Janmohamed

UK RRP £7.99 Paperback
978-1-80338-144-2 240 pages
3 August 2023 250,000 words
198 x 129 mm History / General Interest

Although there is a great deal of interest in this topic and multiple bestselling books on this subject for adults, no one has tackled this subject for the children's market. There are almost no materials for parents, children or schools to that talk about the legacy of the British colonial rule in the 8–14 age group. Yet it has entirely shaped our modern world.

Perfect for fans of Empirelands by Sathnam Sanghera who are seeking to start a conversation with their children about the legacy of the British Empire.

The UK was once a huge global superpower. Bigger than the Roman Empire. Bigger than the Incas, Mayas, Aztecs, Mughal, Ottoman or any other European, Asian, African or American power. Its influence was felt in countries all over the world, but it didn't just affect countries over there. It affected everything about the islands we live on today. It affected the language we speak, the food we eat, the buildings that surround us, the people who live here, and the prosperity we enjoy. It is who we are today.

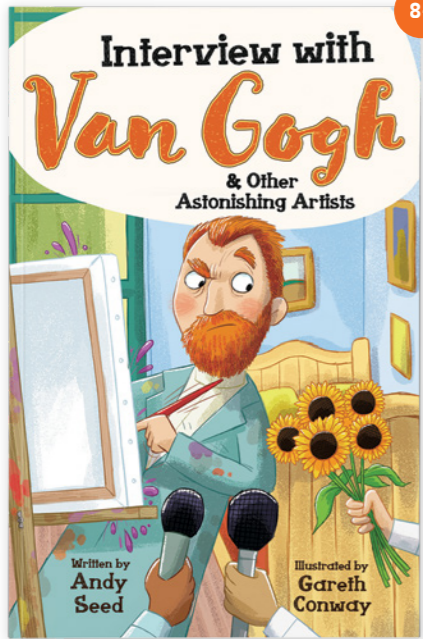

And yet, while we teach our children about the Romans, Egyptians, Mughals, Ottomans and other empires, we breathe barely a word about the biggest, wealthiest, most powerful and most influential superpower ever.

From the Industrial North to the grandchildren of the Windrush generation, to children in overseas territories and former colonies, to those whose families came here fleeing persecution, this book will examine the modern culture of Britain, the Commonwealth and all countries historically connected to her past. It will look at identity and encourage children to discover and celebrate their own stories and the ways we are all connected to each other.

Shelina Janmohamed works in the advertising industry, helping some of the world's biggest and best known brands. She is also a newspaper columnist writing for outlets such as The Guardian, The Telegraph and the BBC. 978-1-83935-233-1 224 pages
229 x 153 mm Computer Game Guides

This is the brand-new, 100% updated edition of How To Beat Minecraft, including all the very latest additions to the game.

An independent guide to the game's famous Survival Mode, covering combat, crafting, the Nether, portals, and a complete walkthrough of how to complete the game.

All the fun, visual appeal, and in-depth factual content you'd expect from Mortimer's best-selling series of Minecraft titles, with over 1.5 million books in print.

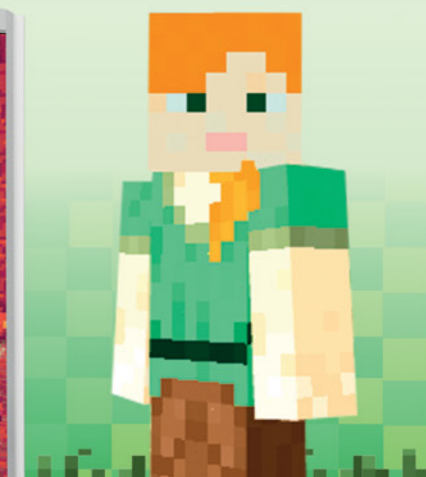

With Minecraft still the most popular children's videogame title worldwide, this expanded and updated edition of How To Beat Minecraft contains absolutely everything a player could possibly need to know about how to finish the game in single-player survival mode.

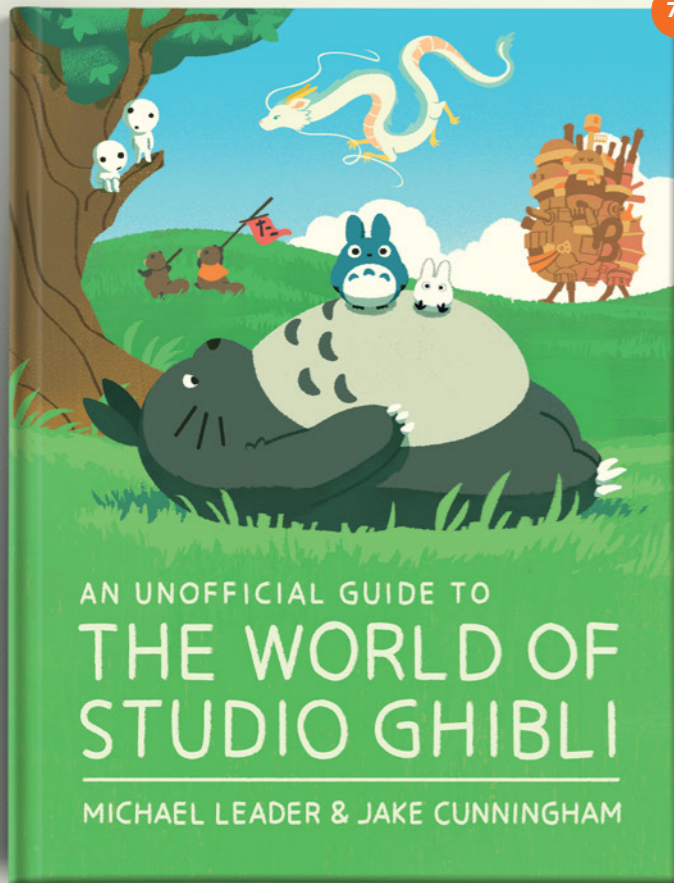

Starting from the very first moment you begin the game in a completely new world, the book will show you the best methods for mining, crafting and creating a shelter, then lead you through farming, making enchanted objects, interacting with villagers, and exploring. Finally, you'll learn how to enter the dangerous world of the Nether and survive there, and how to beat the Ender Dragon and complete the game.

New additions to this edition include biomes like mangrove swamps, the Deep Dark, ancient cities, and mobs including tadpoles, frogs and the ominous Warden. This epic book has everything that a player needs to beat Survival Mode and become a Minecraft champion!

Eddie Robson is an acclaimed scriptwriter and novelist who has written for TV and radio. His writing has appeared in Marvel comics, Doctor Who Adventures and 2000AD.

- Stunning illustration and engaging text make this a book to explore the world with.
- Covers 18 unique islands from across the globe with stunning full-spread illustrations.
- Truly cross-curricular, spanning wildlife, habitats, geography, geology, history, cultures, and technology.
- Includes features on how islands form and a world map featuring all the places in the book.

Remote, mysterious, exotic, unforgettable: islands are captivating and unique places. But what makes them so special? Take a trip across the globe to explore 18 of the world's most intriguing islands and discover their stories.

Some islands are busy, bustling homes to many people, while others have almost no life at all. Some are covered in thick jungle, others in freezing ice. Some are millions of years old, and others are brand new. Islands come in countless shapes and sizes, and this book lets you explore. Turn the pages to climb their mountains, swim in their seas, discover their histories, wonder at their treasures – and above all, be inspired.

Ben Lerwill is a multi-award-winning travel writer based in Oxford. He's a member of the British Guild of Travel Writers and has written for publications and websites including national newspapers, Rough Guides, National Geographic Traveller, and many more. He is also an accomplished children's author.

Originally from Jiangsu Province in China, today Li Zhang is based in New York. Drawing on a range of influences from pop artists like David Hockney to traditional Chinese painting, she has forged her own individual approach to painting and loves experimenting with perspective and geometry.

FOOTBALL'S CHAMPIONS OF CHANGE

AN INSPIRING HISTORY OF THE ANTI-RACISM MOVEMENT IN FOOTBALL

Written by Damian Johnson
Illustrated by Laura Greenan

UK RRP £14.99 Hardback
978-1-78312-942-3 128 pages
14 September 2023 20,000 words
220 x 170 mm Football

A comprehensive photographic history of the anti-racism movement in English football – including a snapshot of Europe, complemented with bright, stylish illustrations to appeal to young adult readers.

Contains profiles of significant footballing figures from history who have played a pivotal role in trying to stamp racism out of the game.

Features positive 'Why I'm a Champion of Change' vox pops from young aspiring players and fans throughout the book to convey a universal message of the need to fight racism and prejudice in sport and society.

Includes a foreword by former Premier League player Brian Deane and an introduction by Troy Townsend, who is the Head of Player Engagement at football's leading anti-discrimination organisation, Kick It Out.

This inspirational book charts the history of the anti-racism movement in English football and beyond, shining a light on both the divisive and unifying power of the beautiful game. Discover the star footballers, which include the likes of Arthur Wharton, Walter Tull and Clyde Best from the early days, to the modern greats such as Raheem Sterling, Marcus Rashford and Bukayo Saka who have faced and fought racial bigotry on the pitch and helped advance the cause. There are also commentaries and insights from coaches, referees as well as grassroots activists who are prominent voices in the mainstream and social media. Features inspiring vox pops from young, modern-day aspiring players and fans from different ethnic backgrounds, explaining their experiences and their own battle (and triumphs) to be treated equally on the pitch and in society.

Damian Johnson is a familiar face and voice of football on TV and radio, both in the UK and overseas. He has worked for top broadcasters including BBC Sport, Radio 5 Live, BT Sport and the English Premier League.

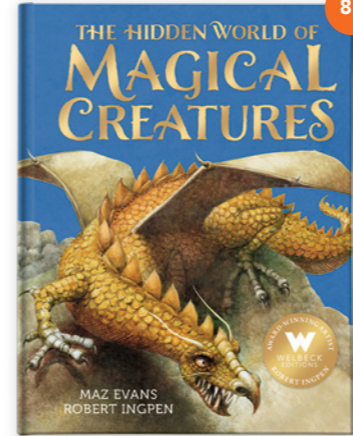

He has interviewed all the major players and managers and reported from three World Cups, three European Championships and six Africa Cup of Nations tournaments.

Football's Champions of Change is his first book.

978-1-73909-901-5 48 pages
September 2023 5,700 words
240 x 192 mm Children's / Educational

True stories of 19 inspirational dogs: the perfect gift for animal lovers.

Funny, inspiring and exciting stories of 'dogs with jobs', with further information on the different breeds featured in the book and 10 amazing facts about our canine friends.

Perfect for bedtime stories – learn how dogs can help us in many ways – from being assistance dogs, firefighters, rescuers, carers to companions to the elderly.

Dogs are more than just members of our families and faithful companions – they can be heroes too!

Not only are dogs incredibly cute, they are also really clever, with different breeds having unique traits that can be very helpful in risky situations. This book is a tribute to the abilities that dogs have to help us, and the 19 amazing stories of inspirational doggy heroes are perfect for young readers.

Written in collaboration with the Affinity Foundation (France & Spain), an organisation focussing on helping abandoned pets and raising awareness about how great an impact pets have on humans, each of the brave dogs covered is even more impressive than the last.

You'll read about: dogs who help the elderly, unhoused people and people learning hard lessons in prisons by offering their canine compassion; working dogs who are part of the police department, fire brigade, and mountain rescue.

These ordinary dogs doing extraordinary things can teach a lesson to us all!

230 x 198 mm Picture Books / Early Learning

Each of the 10 pages can be unfolded, taking you on a journey, spotting different types of dinosaurs in their habitats.

Beautifully illustrated by Susie Hammer who understands what makes children smile: she uses simple shapes and vivid colours to create a playful and naive world.

This fold-out story book allows you and your child to discover where dinosaurs used to live. It transforms itself into a mat where you can see where they hunted, ate, slept and played, including forests, swamps, lakes and volcanoes

Mia Cassany is editor, creative director and founder of Mosquito Books.

Susie Hammer uses simple shapes and vivid colours to create playful and happy imaginary worlds. She has published many children's titles with Simon & Schuster among others, and has worked with the New York Times.

- First in a three-book graphic-novel series for readers 5+.
- Created by Steve Roberts and Joel Stewart who have previously collaborated on TV animation including Abney & Teal and B.O.T. and the Beasties.

A comic/graphic-novel series for 5+ following the adventures of Peggy the Dog, who – when she enters Tangletree Woods on her walk every day – takes up her position as investigator of mysteries.

Beyond the park and deep in the woods is a world of surprises. Here, Peggy the dog has a secret life of mystery and investigation among the twisty trees and strange townfolk of Tangletree.

No problem is too perplexing, no puzzle too small. Along with her faithful sidekick, Stu the shrew, Peggy finds all sorts of ways to help her friends.

Join Peggy and Stu in two colourful comic mysteries in the world of Tangletree.

This is Joel Stewart and Steve Roberts's first book collaboration. Previously to this, they have collaborated on TV animation including Abney & Teal and B.O.T. and the Beasties.

Stewart has also illustrated for Julia Donaldson, Michael Rosen and Michael Bond, as well as for his own picture books.

Roberts created DipDap and Twirlywoos for Ragdoll, which both won Children's BAFTAs. Before his work in television, he was a freelance illustrator in comics.

BELLA BRIGHT AND THE GHOST GAME

Written by Carolyn Ward
Illustrated by Beatriz Castro

UK RRP £7.99 Paperback
978-1-80130-095-7 288 pages
31 August 2023 40,000 words
198 x 129 mm Fiction

- A spooky middle-grade ghost story set on Halloween.
- Written by a dynamic debut author.
- Explores themes of shyness, home and friendship.
- Perfect for fans of The Haunting of Aveline Jones.

Eleven-year-old Bella Bright has just moved into Darkling House in Castleton. On her first day at her new school, she is spotted by a pair of manipulative mean girls, Skylar and Regan. They push her into inviting them to a Halloween sleepover. Another much friendlier girl, Lex, comes to Bella's rescue and offers to join the sleepover to support Bella, who is delighted to be making a real friend.

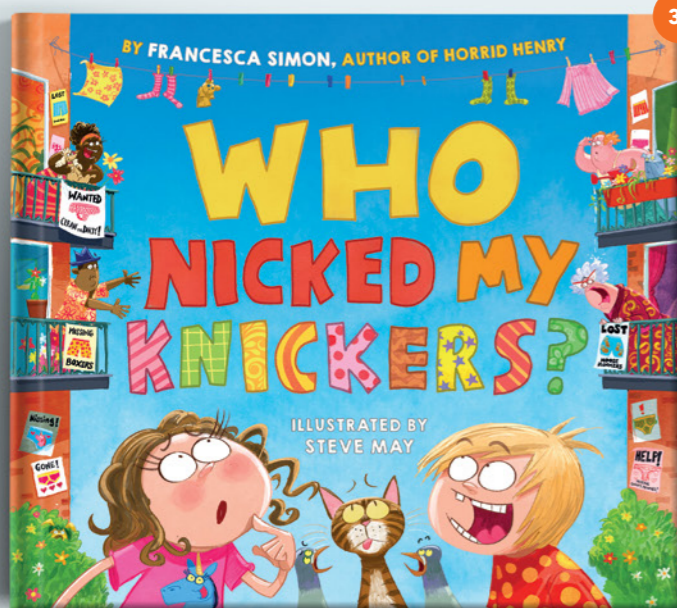

On Halloween night, things start getting spooky for the four girls, when the huge front door appears to shut itself, and their mobile phones lose signal. They decide to order pizza using the landline, but a hair-raising whisper comes down the line.

Skylar suggests they play hide-and-seek, but as she utters the words, the house appears to wobble and they discover all the exits are impossibly locked. Bella searches the manor and a ghostly teenage girl appears in front of her. She reveals herself to be Alice, a young girl who died in the house 150 years ago during a game of hide-and-seek gone terribly wrong. She has hidden Bella's three friends, and gives Bella a rhyming clue to find them in the enormous and cavernous house.

Bella has until midnight. After that, Alice will get to keep the girls as her playmates for ever...

Great for readers of Aliens Love Underpants.

Francesca Simon has been published in 31 languages and sold more than 21 million copies worldwide.

Who nicked my knickers? Who pinched my pants? Was it YOU?

Someone is stealing knickers and it's down to Max and Mabel to discover who.

A hilarious picture book by Francesca Simon and Steve May.

Francesca Simon is one of the UK's most popular authors and has written over 50 books for children of all ages.

One of her most successful and irrepensible creations has been the famous (or should that be infamous) Horrid Henry, who first appeared in 1994. Having gone on to conquer the globe, his adventures are published in 31 languages, and have sold over 21 million copies worldwide.

When she is not writing, Francesca is often encouraging and inspiring young writers and has judged many writing competitions for schools. She is also a passionate ambassador for children's literacy and access to literature.

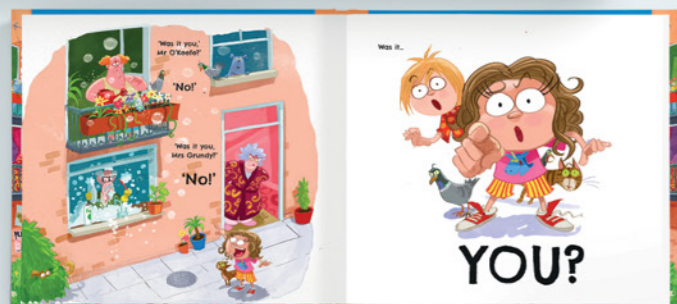

Author Location: North London, UK.

Steve May has been a life-long doodler, studying fine art and film-making in Nottingham and an MA in Animation at the Royal College of Art.

He has illustrated various children's books including the best-selling Dennis the Menace fiction series, Harry Hill's Matt Millz series and Francesca Simon's Terrible Viking books.

WOODWITCH

WITCHES AREN'T BORN, THEY'RE MADE...

Written by Skye McKenna

UK RRP £7.99 Paperback
978-1-80130-109-1 416 pages
14 September 2023 70,000 words
198 x 129 mm Fiction

Second in a brilliantly plotted five-book series.

Warm, fresh and intensely human, this mixes the legends we know with stories we don't.

Perfect for readers of Nevermoor, The Worst Witch and The Dark Is Rising.

Step into the magical world of Hedgewitch, where the land of Faerie lies just beyond our own... The enchanting new series continues.

Cassie has settled into life in Hedgely when, out of the blue, her troubled cousin, Sebastian, comes to stay for Hallow'een. Sneering and scornful, Sebastian trails after Cassie and her friends, interfering with their coven projects and belittling the dangers of the faery world.

But Cassie, Rue and Tabitha have bigger problems: as the nights grow longer, a dark shadow creeps out of the Hedge and villagers start behaving strangely, possessed with the desire to find a mysterious object.

When the Hedgewitch is called away, the girls decide to investigate and discover that whoever is controlling the villagers is seeking a faery relic: an ancient and dangerous weapon, hidden somewhere in the village. Their magical training will be put to the test as they venture deeper into the Hedge and race to find the faery treasure before it falls into the hands of the Erl King.

Skye McKenna grew up in the iron ore mining town of Newman in the Australian Outback. Surrounded by the red dust of the Pilbara, she developed a healthy respect for wild things and wild places at a young age. Longing for adventures of her own, she travelled to the UK and fell in love with the British countryside. Skye now lives in Scotland where she works for a heritage charity. She recently curated an exhibition about medieval magicians and alchemists. Skye is the author of Hedgewitch, the first book in a magical new series for readers aged 9+.

Author Location: Glasgow, Scotland.

DOGTOWN

Written by Katherine Applegate and Gennifer Choldenko
Illustrated by Wallace West

UK RRP £7.99 Paperback
978-1-80130-142-8 240 pages
19 September 2023 30,000 words
198 x 129 mm Fiction

- Katherine Applegate is a New York Times bestselling and Newbery Medal winning author.
- Publishing simultaneously with Macmillan US (Feiwel & Friends).
- A story of kindness and finding a home.
- For fans of Homeward Bound and A Dog Called Homeless.

From authors Katherine Applegate and Gennifer Choldenko, Dogtown is an uplifting story and a page-turning adventure.

Dogtown is a shelter for stray dogs, misbehaving dogs, and discarded robot dogs, whose owners have outgrown them.

Chance, a real dog, has been in Dogtown since his owners unwittingly left him with irresponsible dog-sitters who skipped town.

Metal Head is a robot dog who dreams of being back in a real home.

And Mouse is a mouse who has the run of Dogtown, pilfering kibble, and performing feats to protect the dogs he loves.

When Chance and Metal Head embark on an adventure to find their forever homes, there is danger, cheese sandwiches, a charging station, and some unexpected kindnesses along the way.

Katherine Applegate is the author of several bestselling children's books, including The One and Only Ivan, winner of the Newbery Medal and, more recently, Wishtree and Odder. Her books have been widely acclaimed and New York Times bestsellers. She lives with her family in Irvine, California.

Gennifer Choldenko's best-known Tales from Alcatraz series, has been called 'A cornerstone series in contemporary children's literature.' Al Capone Does My Shirts – the first book in the series – was a Newbery Honor Book and the recipient of 20 other awards. All four books in the series were Junior Library Guild selections and garnered many starred reviews. Gennifer lives in the San Francisco Bay area, in the US, with her loyal husband and naughty dog.

Wallace West is a world explorer spending most of his time on the US East Coast (the rest wherever strikes his fancy). He once foolishly pet a wild alligator and considers a tinned-fish picnic in Norway the best meal he's ever had.

THE BUTTERFLY CLUB THE TRIP TO THE MOON

Written by M.A. Bennett

UK RRP £7.99 Paperback
978-1-80130-043-8 304 pages
12 October 2023 60,000 words
198 x 129 mm Fiction

The adventures of the time-travelling Butterfly Club continue...

Butterfly Club member and filmmaker Georges Méliès pleads to be allowed to go forward in time to harvest a movie camera from the future to make his ambitious film, A Trip to the Moon.

The Butterfly Club call up Professor Lorenz's hologram from 1969. The professor reports that all of America is abuzz, too, with the most ambitious scientific project in history – an actual trip to the moon. But the mission has stalled in the most terrible way – an accident on the launchpad resulted in the astronauts being trapped in a fatal fire.

For the first time ever, it is the professor who asks the time thieves for help – he invites them to come to 1969 and stop the dreadful accident, and make sure the trip to the moon can go ahead.

M.A. Bennett studied art and worked as an illustrator, an actress and a film reviewer. Now she has her dream job of being a writer and her books have been translated into more than 20 languages. She lives in London.
