

The Tattoorialist

Road Trip: Berlin, London, New York, Tokyo, Paris

Nicolas Brulez and Mylène Ebrard

March

ISBN 9781784882426

£35.00 | Hardback

320pp | 320 x 250 mm

Full colour photography

An atlas of the best tattoo artists on the planet

Once the mark of an underground subculture, tattoos have truly stepped out of the shadows and into the streets. Join photographers Nicolas Brulez and Mylène Ebrard on their road trip through Berlin, London, Paris, New York and Tokyo to capture the most stylish designs and cutting-edge tattoo artists the world has to offer. It showcases over 300 photographs of people and their unique designs as well as the cities' best artists. This is a keepsake as well as an informative guide to the best places to get your next ink, presented in a luxurious coffee table book format.

Nicolas Brulez is the Tattoorialist – based in France, he travels the globe looking for the best tattoos and tattoo artists. Mylène Ebrard is a freelance press officer and is passionate about fashion and art.

- A luxurious coffee table book on the world's best tattoo artists and their work
- As the title suggests, this is the Sartorialist for tattoos
- Tattoos only continue to gain popularity worldwide
- In-depth profiles of the artists and their creations in Berlin, London, New York and Paris

Also available
London Tattoo Guide
9781784881207
£12.99