

A photographic project, 15 years long, dedicated to the mythical places of Rome, reinterpreted in a surprising and unexpected way by the great Austrian photographer.

Alfred Seiland
IMPERIVM ROMANVM
Photographs 2005-2020
edited by Filippo Maggia
and Francesca Morandini

Size 9^{1/2} x 11 in. (24 x 28 cm)
Dual-language edition (English-Italian)
144 pages
100 colour illustrations
hardcover
ISBN 978-88-572-4406-8
£ 30.00
November 2020

Skira editore

Key Sales Points

- Contemporary images of the Roman Empire
 - Past and present in the stunning images of the contemporary photographer.
 - Seiland's photographs examine themes such as the conflict between the ancient world and the modern one and the struggle to protect antique memorials and cultural assets from the dangers of uncontrolled economic development, tourism, political conflicts, and war.
 - Brescia, Museo di Santa Giulia
- 8 May - 6 September 2020

Target Market

- Photographers and photography lovers

A photographic project, 15 years long, dedicated to the mythical places of Rome, reinterpreted in a surprising and unexpected way by the great Austrian photographer.

Alfred Seiland
IMPERIVM ROMANVM
Photographs 2005-2020
edited by Filippo Maggia
and Francesca Morandini

Size 9^{1/2} x 11 in. (24 x 28 cm)
Dual-language edition (English-Italian)
144 pages
100 colour illustrations
hardcover
ISBN 978-88-572-4406-8
£ 30.00
November 2020

Skira editore